Yellow Ribbon Program

William T. Rice-Program Specialists

Office: (502) 607-2210

Yellow Ribbon hosts events for soldiers and their families before deployments to assist them with the stresses of preparing for deployment. Events are held during deployment for families to assist with issues that have risen after their soldier has left. Yellow Ribbon also hosts events for units after they come home to help the soldiers and their families reintegrate back into society and deal with the stresses of coming home. All of these events are at no cost to the family or the soldier.
